Our Waka Ama group were all set and ready to head out on the water when we received news of a motorway accident that meant all access roads to the wharf were closed. While it was disappointing not to launch, our students showed incredible adaptability and a positive attitude. Instead of letting the situation hold us back, the group made the most of their time by focusing on warm up routines and paddle stroke techniques. Their resilience, teamwork, and commitment to improvement were outstanding to see.
We are so proud of the way you responded—turning a challenge into an opportunity to grow. Ka pai, team!
