I really enjoyed seeing so many of you last week for a coffee. It was such an extraordinary day with lots happening on the roads around our school.

Love Autumn time at school. Mr Milina has a lot of fun with our students. He spends the morning blowing all of the leaves into a pile, ready for the students to play in. So much fun! Thank you Mr Milina for doing this for us.

This term Room 9 has been learning about cinquains. A cinquain is a five-line, 22-syllable poem. The word cinquain is pronounced ``sin-cane. `` Cinquains were created by American poet, Adelaide Crapsey in 1911. Also they don't have to rhyme. They are similar to Japanese forms such as haiku, they are shaped almost like a diamante, which is like a diamond. `` Cinq `` in French means the number `` five. `` A cinquain should have a title, description, action, feeling, then a conclusion.
