This week we have had a lot of disappointed children when a trip to the Glow Show was cancelled due the terrible storm which took out all of the power in our area. The Trust Stadium was unable to continue and had to cancel the show. They are trying to fit us in again. The book week story time in our hall was a success.. It's great getting back to normal and giving our students a nice time. They really have done well coping with all of the COVID lockdowns and missing out on many trips, and other cool activities.

Storm Rages On

The bitter taste of disappointment rules the kingdom of my mouth.

I watch in terror as hoardes of rain drops rapidly creep towards us.

Pushing powerfully, the wind presses me back using the force of Baby Yoda.

I smell fear as lightning zaps a nearby power pole.

It sounds like the roar of a ravenous lion pride.

Tiny Teddies

Today we made Tiny Teddy racing cars with a Moro, M and M's and a tiny teddy. Then we wrote a story about our Teddy and where he could go in his car.

My Teddy went to his house to play video games.
