Hope you had a lovely weekend.

What a week of rain and sunshine. It is a sure way to get spring growth in all of our trees and shrubs.

We have been clearing away weeds and trimming our gardens ready for planting new lavender , hibiscus, bird of paradise, star jasmine, and watermelon

Thank you to all of the students who have been helping with the digging and planting.

I had a box of fireworks and the box of fireworks had so many fireworks in it. I saw red fireworks and it looked like a star.

On Saturday I went to my Aunties house and did fireworks. My Uncle got them. We did the sparkle one and we did the green one. My Uncle told my Aunty to do the green one and she was screaming because she was scared. Everyone was laughing. It was fun!

Yesterday morning I did smoke bombs. My Dad lit them for me. They are white, green, blue and yellow. They were a little bit smoky. I watched the bamboo cracker and it made a big explosion. My ears were hurting.
